were wanted to show that the Sixth District Agricultural Association has had its day and ought to quit, it might be found in the fact that the receipts at the pavilion this year have fallen far below those of last year, as against a daily average of $400 in gate money for the former fair, this year shows only $150. The biggest day at the Pavilion last year brought in $1000. This year it seached only $321. There is no reason, saide from inherent weakness, why the fair should not have drawn better this year than last. The people are here, the money is here, the desire for sight-seeing is here. Why shouldn't the people go to see a fair—if it es a good one? There's the rub. The fact is, that fart horses absorbed the vitality of the entire association.
